

Specialist practice areas: Serious Crime, Criminal/Civil

Fraud

Philip Romans is a specialist defence advocate with a broad serious crime practice. A particular area of expertise is serious fraud, including advance fee fraud, white collar crime and money laundering. His experience also extends to numerous cases involving asset forfeiture and confiscation.

Philip's busy general crime practice spans a range of violent offences such as murder, manslaughter and firearms offences, sexual crime, including child abuse, and large-scale cases concerning the importation and supply of drugs.

Notable Cases

R v Radak and others (Southwark CC, Snaresbrook CC)

Series of advance fee fraud/money-laundering trials

R v Boulter and others (Wood Green CC)

5-month large-scale multi-national fraud trial

R v Denning and others (Luton CC)

6-month multi-handed murder trial

R v Akhtar and others (Derby CC)

Conspiracy to rob/firearms

R v Poobalasingam (Harrow CC)

3-month multi-handed fraud trial

R v Barnes and others (Cardiff CC)

3-month large-scale drug-supply trial

R v Smith and others (Snaresbrook CC)

complex 6-month drug importation trial

R v Griffiths (CCC)

'One-punch' doorman manslaughter trial

R v Cameron (CCC)

Rape by wheelchair-bound defendant

R v Hussain (CCC)

Murder/manslaughter/diminished responsibility
